Forecast For Scotland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Tuesday 17 Aug 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Cloudy and drizzly start. Becoming drier, brighter away from west.

Today:
Light drizzly rain for many to start, with low cloud, mist and fog patches in the west. Becoming dry for most except far west. Sunny spells developing in the east and pleasantly warm again for Fife and Tayside.

Tonight:
Evening sunshine in the east, low cloud and drizzly rain again in the west, this will push inland overnight. Becoming quite wet and windy for the Northern Isles by dawn.

Wednesday:
An improving day for most with low cloud and drizzle in the northwest clearing and strong winds in the north easing. Fife and Tayside seeing another pleasantly sunny day.

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Cloudy in the south, brighter in the north on Thursday. Bright and dry day for most on Friday but cloud increasing from the west precedes some wet weather for weekend.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.